

Lindsay Padla-Sanborn
Office Manager
Booth Movers, Ltd. / Booth In-Home Delivery

Lindsay Padla-Sanborn joined the Booth Movers, Ltd. Team in 1998 as a full time employee after working part-time since 1994. Once aboard the Booth Movers Team, Lindsay quickly became an asset by spearheading the distribution sector of the business. She was successful at securing hotel, restaurant and cabinet distribution accounts while overseeing daily operations of the entire office staff. Since then, she has taken control of managing the company's finances and continues to oversee daily operations of office staff, monitoring revenue and expenses and setting financial goals.

Lindsay currently plays a very active role in and sits on the board of the Northern New Jersey Chapter of the National Kitchen and Bath Association (NKBA), an organization consisting of over 400 members in the Northern New Jersey Region. In the past, she has served consecutive annual terms as Secretary and Treasurer of the organization and is currently the Vice President of Programming for the chapter until 2010. Lindsay has also been recognized by the American Moving & Storage Association (AMSA) for the successful completion of numerous leadership programs focused on the betterment of employees in the moving, storage and distribution industry.

Lindsay is a graduate of the University of Delaware where she obtained her Bachelor of Art degree in History and Spanish. She currently resides with her husband and young daughter in Wyckoff, NJ.
